

Facility Management Credential IFMA's CFM and FMP

Upcoming workshop:

May 2011

During the networking dinner for the BCAA-IFMA Regional Conference on the 31st March 2011, 7 new CFM was congratulated by Mr Stephen Ballesty,

Chair of IFMA Foundation. This is the 2nd year that BCA Academy and International Facility Management Association Singapore Chapter jointly organize the regional conference. Last year, the CFMs and FMPs got their certificate from IFMA President and CEO, Mr Tony Keane.

So what is CFM and FMP?

In today's competitive marketplace, long hours, hard work and years of experience may no longer be enough for the facility managers to advance their careers and secure their position. They must aim to achieve the recognition that they deserve for their noteworthy contributions to the professional management of facilities. IFMA credential programs were developed to help facility managers gain additional credibility and also increase the recognition of this profession. The goals of IFMA's certification program are to:

- Assure professional competence
- Establish standards for global professional practice
- Promote the added value of the profession
- Influence the future direction of the profession

CFM® Certification - The most respected global credential in FM

The Certified Facility Manager® (CFM) credential sets the industry standard for ensuring the knowledge and competence of practicing facility managers. IFMA's certification process is designed to assess competency in the field through work experience, education and the ability to pass a comprehensive exam. Since the program began in 1992, more than 3,100 facility managers from 32 countries have achieved this prestigious recognition.

FMP® Credential - A Knowledge based credential. IFMA's Facility Management Professional (FMP) designation is a knowledge-based credential that will help to accelerate an FM's transition into the profession. By earning your FMP credential, you will improve your knowledge, enhance your skills, and gain immediate credibility with employers, clients and peers.

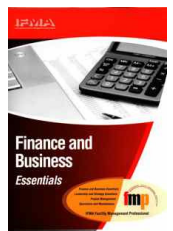

FMS Associates is the approved provider for IFMA's credential program, centered in Singapore, since 2008. FMS Associates is privilege to have support from overseas organizations such as UAE, Kuwait, Brunei, Philippines, Africa, Thailand and Malaysia, for our programs. We were also the 1st approved international provider to roll out the New Enhanced FMP program in March.
